THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

“All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me.
Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.” - Mt 28:18b-19

Dear Friends in Christ,

Today we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord. This in-between time has come to an end. Christ ascends into Heaven and the disciples are sent forth to be the presence of Christ to others. Given, they are still awaiting the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost but their mission has become quite clear.

I pray we also see our mission in these days. It is not one of anxiety or worry but living in the present moment, present to the will of God and present to those He has placed in our lives.

Read these words of C.S. Lewis from his book "Mere Christianity." My friend Fr. Jeff encourages you to substitute "coronavirus pandemic" for "atomic age" in this passage:

"In one way we think a great deal too much of the atomic bomb. 'How are we to live in an atomic age?' I am tempted to reply: 'Why, as you would have lived in the sixteenth century when the plague visited London almost every year, or as you would have lived in a Viking age when raiders from Scandinavia might land and cut your throat any night; or indeed, as you are already living in an age of cancer, an age of syphilis, an age of paralysis, an age of air raids, an age of railway accidents, an age of motor accidents.'

"In other words, do not let us begin by exaggerating the novelty of our situation. Believe me, dear sir or madam, you and all whom you love were already sentenced to death before the atomic bomb was invented: and quite a high percentage of us were going to die in unpleasant ways. We had, indeed, one very great advantage over our ancestors—anesthetics; but we have that still. It is perfectly ridiculous to go about whimpering and drawing long faces because the scientists have added one more chance of painful and premature death to a world which already bristled with such chances and in which death itself was not a chance at all, but a certainty.

"This is the first point to be made, and the first action to be taken is to pull ourselves together. If we are all going to be destroyed by an atomic bomb, let that bomb when it comes find us doing sensible and human things—praying, working, teaching, reading, listening to music, bathing the children, playing tennis, chatting to our friends over a pint and a game of darts—not huddled together like frightened sheep and thinking about bombs. They may break our bodies (a microbe can do that) but they need not dominate our minds."

These are, perhaps prophetic words needed in our time to rouse us from our slumber in darkness.

May God bless you this week.

donate by accessing the SKD website stkatharinedrexel.com and under giving, donate electronically by choosing SVDP Beggar's Sunday in the drop down menu. You may set up a one time or recurring donation and you'll receive an email confirming that donation. God Bless and thank you for your continued support.

What To Do on the Lord's Day

Those who will not attend Sunday Mass should prayerfully unite themselves to the Lord through other appropriate means. Below are three ways:

1. Reflect on the Sunday Mass readings, which you can find on the website of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, uscbb.org/readings. Magnificat has also made their online version free to access. It includes the readings, reflections, and prayers in this Lenten season, <https://us.magnificat.net/free>.

2. Watch live coverage of the Holy Mass. For those with access to the Eternal Word Television Network (EWTN), you can watch live daily Masses through their TV channel. We also stream our Sunday 9:30 AM Mass at SKD on our Facebook page, facebook.com/stkatharinedrexelamador, as well as 1340 AM and 96.5 FM. You may also listen to the Sunday homilies, which are available at soundcloud.com/frcolinwen or our parish website, www.stkatharinedrexel.com.

3. Most importantly, all Catholics unable to attend Mass should make a spiritual communion. If you cannot receive the Blessed Sacrament at Mass, the ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Sacrament allows you to partake in its effects. In other words, although you do not receive the Eucharist physically, you can still receive the graces that flow from the Eucharist. Although we obtain more graces when we eat His Body and drink His Blood as He commanded, a spiritual communion still produces a partial participation in the effects of the Sacrament. Here is a brief Act of Spiritual Communion which you can learn and then pray whenever unable to receive the Eucharist:

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Month of May Dedicated to Mary

The month of May is dedicated to the Blessed Mother, Mary. This is a wonderful opportunity to set aside a little time each day to pray the Rosary. If you are able to only pray one decade of the Rosary, take the time to do so. The gentle repetition of the words helps us to enter into the silence of our hearts, where Christ's spirit dwells. The prayer, Hail Holy Queen, is prayed at the end of the recitation of the five decades of the Rosary.

When possible, consider praying the Rosary with others.
