Dear Friends in Christ,

With a lot of news these last weeks we may be feeling a bit overwhelmed. But hopefully not! As you might have expected, in light of the stay at home orders and the limited amount of people permitted at Mass, we will not have liturgies at Silver Lake Chapel this summer.

Thanks to all of you who came out for the Youth Ministry's Soak City Car Wash as well as the Knights of Columbus Car Show. Hopefully they were safe and enjoyable events for everyone who participated.

If you have been over to the cemetery in Sutter Creek you will see that one of the massive dying trees is being cut down. There are also a couple more that will be coming down at the cemetery in Jackson. While we don't like to see trees come down, at times it is necessary for the safety of the grounds.

As I mentioned previously, I am offering some Spiritual Direction slots to those who might be interested. This is a chance to reflect on your own walk with the Lord and where He is leading you. This can be more difficult to discern with our spiritual routines upset by the current climate of anxiety and worry. I may also consider offering afternoon times if these morning hours do not work for many people.

Our Lawn Chair Chats continue to go well. The next one will be in Fiddletown at a beautiful lookout spot. If you have not been to one yet, I encourage you to consider this one! We have been having some great discussions about faith and how the Lord has been working in the lives of parishioners and where He is leading us as well. One recent note was the importance of still being social while physically distant. I would challenge you to consider how we can do that as parishioners in creative ways. There is always space to meet at our different church sites in physically distant ways so we can still enjoy the company of parishioners.

Remember also that we have started offering Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on Thursday afternoons from 12:30 to 5:30 PM. This can be perhaps a bit easier than coming to Mass, either during the week or on a Sunday. However, I do encourage you to consider finding a place where you feel comfortable attending Mass. Nothing can quite replace going to Mass.

This coming weekend my youngest and only brother is finally getting married! I'll be away from Friday afternoon until Saturday night for the rehearsal and wedding. Fr. Paul Macname will be covering the Vigil on Saturday evening. With the elimination of signups, we are going to move confessions on Saturday back to 3:30 to 4:30 PM as it is closer to the hour for Mass. So if you want to go to another priest for confession, take advantage this coming Saturday starting at 3:30 PM. On Sunday, God willing, a good priest friend of mine, Fr. Andrew Ginter, will be joining us. He will be preaching at the morning Masses.

May God bless you this week!
