Parish Purpose Statement

Called together by Jesus Christ,

friendship with the Father, we continue the work of our Savior
to bring salvation to all peoples

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

April 4, 2021

When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:6-7

Contempló los lienzos puestos en el suelo y el sudario, que había estado sobre la cabeza de Jesús, puesto no con los lienzos en el suelo, sino doblado en sitio aparte. - Jn 20, 6B-7

Dear Friends in Christ,

Easter has arrived. Growing up, I always considered Easter to be like a second-class feast. There was no Easter holiday shopping season like there was before Christmas or all the Christmas music on the radio and cookies that warmed your heart . . . or drove you crazy. And there was definitely no pile of gifts under the Easter tree. But we know, as I have since learned, that Easter is really at the heart of our Christian faith. For it is Jesus destroying death and bringing life through His resurrection and revealing His divinity. This is clearly emphasized by the fact that our Easter season is 50 days. And that includes what we call the Easter Octave, these days of special feasting and rejoicing in the goodness of God. It is not so much about throwing a party every day and engaging in gluttony, but rather with joy reflecting on the mystery of the Resurrection and new life in Christ. We see this joy in part as we welcome new members into the Church after a long period of preparation, discernment, and teaching.

G.K. Chesterton gives us another way of looking at Easter Sunday:

“On the third day the friends of Christ coming at daybreak to the place found the grave empty and the stone rolled away. In varying ways they realized the new wonder; but even they hardly realized that the world had died in the night. What they were looking at was the first day of a new creation, with a new heaven and a new earth; and in a semblance of the gardener God walked again in the garden, in the cool not of the evening but the dawn.”

The world had died. What a striking image of Easter. The world died and came to life again. So we celebrate this new hope of life. This does not make suffering or struggle disappear. But it gives us reason to hope in the midst of the darkness.

Next Sunday is Divine Mercy Sunday.

The Church invites us to rejoice in the great mercy God shows us through His Son and to turn once again to the Father. We will also be starting a homily series on the Church. This time period between the Resurrection and the Ascension of Jesus Christ is a time of preparation for the birth of the Church in time, which has already begun with the piercing of Christ's side on the cross, from which poured forth His bride the Church, just as Eve came forth from the side of Adam. We will reflect on the nature of the Church in history, how she is the fulfillment of the worshipping assembly we see in the Old Testament, and continues to be the Body of Christ and the source of salvation over 2,000 years to the present day as the one, holy, Catholic, and apostolic Church.

May Christ be your hope!

An Easter Proclamation

The hosts of heaven exult and sing aloud in mighty triumph!

Let the earth be glad as glory alights and night reigns no more.

Let the Church rejoice at the victory of her Lord and Master,

Who paid the debt of Adam,

Who frees those doomed to die,

Who heals the broken-hearted and binds up their wounds,

Who forgives the sinner and raises up the lowly,

Who destroys death forever,

Whose Kingdom shall have no end.

God our Father, eternal is your love for us!

Christ the Son, in victory you reign!

Holy Spirit, set the Easter fire ablaze in our hearts.

Together you live and reign and ransom your people,

one God forever and ever.

Amen.
