Dear Friends in Christ,

Christ has risen and this Easter season continues! For 50 days! It is a time to rejoice and feast together in the goodness of our God who raises the dead to life and gives to us the promise of eternal life. I am truly grateful especially now for our liturgical seasons. My heart rose with great joy upon the intonation of the Gloria and then the Alleluia, as if darkness was lifted and light shined forth once again. I am incredibly thankful for all of you, for you make my life as a priest a joy filled one and to all those who helped make our Holy Week liturgies rich in beauty and reverence. We had a short crew for the week but we were blessed to have them!

This Sunday is Divine Mercy Sunday. Not so familiar with it? Here is a little background that starts with the life of Saint Faustina. This is an excerpt from Apostle of Divine Mercy, a biography published by the Vatican.

"Sister Faustina was born on August 25, 1905 in Glogowiec, Poland of a poor and religious family of peasants, the third of 10 children. She was baptized with the name Helena in the parish church of Swinice Warckie. From a very tender age she stood out because of her love of prayer, work, obedience, and also her sensitivity to the poor. At the age of seven she had already felt the first stirrings of a religious vocation. Helen made her first Holy Communion at the age of nine, which was very profound moment in her awareness of the presence of the Divine Guest within her soul. She attended school for three years. After finishing school, she wanted to enter the convent, but her parents would not give her permission. Being of age at 16, Helen left home and went to work as a housekeeper in Aleksandrów, Lodi, and Ostrówiek in order to find the means of supporting herself and of helping her parents.

"Helen never lost her desire for a religious vocation. After being called during a vision of the Suffering Christ, she entered the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy on August 1, 1925, and took the name Sr. Maria Faustina of the Most Blessed Sacrament. She lived in the Congregation for thirteen years in several religious houses. She spent time at Krakow, Plock and Vilnius, where she worked as a cook, gardener, and porter.

"Externally nothing revealed her rich mystical interior life. She zealously performed her tasks and faithfully observed the rule of religious life. She was recollected and at the same time very natural, serene, and full of kindness and disinterested love for her neighbor. Although her life was apparently insignificant, monotonous and dull, she hid within herself an extraordinary union with God. It is the mystery of the Mercy of God which she contemplated in the word of God as well as in the everyday activities of her life that forms the basis of her spirituality. The process of contemplating and getting to know the mystery of God's mercy helped develop within Sr. Maria Faustina the attitude of child-like trust in God as well as mercy toward her neighbors.

"Sister Faustina was a faithful daughter of the Church which she loved like a Mother and the Mystical Body of Jesus Christ. Conscious of her role in the Church, she cooperated with God's mercy in the task of saving lost souls. At the specific request of and following the example of the Lord Jesus, she made a sacrifice of her own life for this very goal. In her spiritual life she also distinguished herself with a love of the Eucharist and a deep devotion to the Mother of Mercy.

"The Lord Jesus chose Sr. Maria Faustina as the Apostle and "Secretary" of His Mercy, so that she could tell the world about His great message, which Sr. Faustina recorded in a diary she titled Divine Mercy in My Soul. In the Old Covenant He said to her:

"I sent prophets wielding thunderbolts to My people. Today I am sending you with My mercy to the people of the whole world. I do not want to punish aching mankind, but I desire to heal it, pressing it to My Merciful Heart." (Diary, 1588)

"In an extraordinary way, Sr. Maria Faustina's work sheds light on the mystery of the Divine Mercy. It delights not only the simple and uneducated people, but also scholars who look upon it as an additional source of theological research. The Diary has been translated into more than 20 languages, including, English, German,

"Sister Maria Faustina, consumed by tuberculosis and by innumerable sufferings which she accepted as a voluntary sacrifice for sinners, died in Krakow at the age of just 33 on October 5, 1938, with a reputation for spiritual maturity and a mystical union with God. The reputation of the holiness of her life grew as did the cult to the Divine Mercy and the graces she obtained from God through her intercession. In the years 1965-67, the Investigative Process into her life and heroic virtues was undertaken in Krakow and in the year 1968, the Beatification Process was initiated in Rome. The latter came to an end in December 1992.

On April 18, 1993 our Holy Father, John Paul II raised St. Faustina to the glory of the altars. She was canonized on April 30, 2000.

St. Maria Faustina's remains rest at the Sanctuary of the Divine Mercy in Krakow-Lagiewniki."

May God's Divine Mercy heal you!

Remembering Beggar's Sunday

The Covid-19 coronavirus has touched everyone's life in some way. For those in need, the basic necessities have become even more scarce or out-of-reach than ever. Our local chapter of the St. Vincent de Paul Society continues to assist the needy but, without our public Masses, the bi-monthly Beggar's Sunday collections are not at the forefront of our minds. The shortage of adequate funds has limited the Society's ability to respond to requested needs, and they are asking for your support in their vital mission to help the poor. If you haven't considered giving electronically, now is the perfect time. You may be pleasantly surprised at its convenience. The parish offers both an Electronic Giving program, where you can set up your giving specifically to SVdP on a regular or one-time basis, and a Text2Give program where you can donate simply by texting an amount from your smartphone anytime. Learn about both of these programs on our website, www.stkatharinedrexel.com and navigate to Giving. Thank you!

What to Do on the Lord's Day

Those who will not attend Sunday Mass should prayerfully unite themselves to the Lord through other appropriate means. Below are three ways:

1. Reflect on the Sunday Mass readings, which you can find on the website of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (uscbb.org/readings). Magnificat has also made their online version free to access. It includes the readings, reflections, and prayers in this Lenten season (<https://us.magnificat.net/free>).
2. Watch live coverage of the Holy Mass. For those with access to the Eternal Word Television Network (EWTN), you can watch live daily Masses through their TV channel. We will also be streaming our Sunday 930am Mass at SKD on our parish Facebook page (facebook.com/stkatharinedrexelamador), as well as 1340 AM and 96.5 FM. You may also listen to The Sunday homilies, which are available at soundcloud.com/frcolinwen.
3. Most importantly, all Catholics unable to attend Mass should make a spiritual communion. We recall the Church's teaching on this matter. Pope Saint John Paul II reminded us of the following:

"... in the Eucharist unlike any other sacrament, the mystery [of communion] is so perfect that it brings us to the heights of every good thing: Here is the ultimate goal of every human desire, because here we attain God and God joins himself to us in the most perfect union." Precisely for this reason it is good to cultivate in our hearts a constant desire for the sacrament of the Eucharist. This was the origin of the practice of "spiritual communion," which has happily been established in the Church for centuries and recommended by saints who were masters of the spiritual life. Saint Teresa of Jesus wrote: "When you do not receive communion and you do not attend Mass, you can make a spiritual communion, which is a most beneficial practice; by it the love of God will be greatly impressed on you." (John Paul II, Encyclical Letter Ecclesia in Eucharistia, n. 34)

If you cannot receive the Blessed Sacrament at Mass, the ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Sacrament allows you to partake in its effects. In other words, although you do not receive the Eucharist physically, you can still receive the graces that flow from the Eucharist. Although we obtain more graces when we eat His Body and drink His Blood as He commanded, a spiritual communion still produces a partial participation in the effects of the Sacrament. Here is a brief Act of Spiritual Communion which you can learn and then pray whenever unable to receive the Eucharist:

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from

Prayer: The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me.
