Dear Friends in Christ,

It has been a strange last couple of weeks as we pass through the light and darkness of these power outages. While it has certainly been a frustration and a trial for many of us, it is striking as well that it happens as we approach the end of our liturgical year and the readings slowly start to turn more apocalyptic, as we draw near to the Solemnity of Christ the King. Perhaps the end will come just like a blackout. There will be little time to prepare. That is why we are invited to prepare now and not put off until tomorrow what needs to be done today.

Thanks to all those who have responded to help plan our first Christmas Brunch or what I am calling our "Light the Way to Christmas Brunch." If you still want to help, contact Marge in the Parish Office. We'll need help with decorations, setup, serving, cooking, and even a kids station with a bounce house. Should be quite the event. We are also planning a float for the Light Parade in Sutter Creek. We have a call out for a long trailer as well as a generator for the day of. Considering how many Lowes is selling these days, there has to be one out there to loan out by December 14th, I hope! We'll also need some of our young people to ride with the float so consider joining us that evening and representing our parish.

November is a month where I often discuss Catholic Funeral Planning. However today it seems opportune to mention a little about end-of-life care as there seems to be some uncertainty about Catholic teaching on this. The Catechism of the Catholic Church is quite clear in paragraphs 2277-2279:

"Whatever its motives and means, direct euthanasia consists of putting an end to the lives of handicapped, sick, or dying persons. It is morally unacceptable.

Thus an act or omission which, of itself or by intention, causes death in order to eliminate suffering constitutes a murder gravely contrary to the dignity of the human person and to the respect due to the living God, his Creator. The error of judgment into which one can fall in good faith does not change the nature of this murderous act, which must always be forbidden and excluded.

Discontinuing medical procedures that are burdensome, dangerous, extraordinary, or disproportionate to the expected outcome can be legitimate; it is the refusal of "over-zealous" treatment. Here one does not will to cause death; one's inability to impede it is merely accepted. The decisions should be made by the patient if he is competent and able or, if not, by those legally entitled to act for the patient, whose reasonable will and legitimate interests must always be respected.

Even if death is thought imminent, the ordinary care owed to a sick person cannot be legitimately interrupted. The use of painkillers to alleviate the sufferings of the dying, even at the risk of shortening their days, can be morally in conformity with human dignity if death is not willed as either an end or a means, but only foreseen and tolerated as inevitable. Palliative care is a special form of disinterested charity. As such it should be encouraged."

If you have any specific questions feel free to set up a time to speak with me.

This month we will look more deeply into the liturgy we celebrate, especially on the first three Sundays. It will be a chance to reflect on what is familiar to many but foreign to most.

We also start our Marian consecration this Tuesday Nov. 5th. Please join us in reflection and prayer each day. If you miss a day don't worry. Just keep going!

Lastly, thanks for your prayers as our staff and I traveled to Anaheim for The Amazing Parish Conference. It was a great blessing and source of renewal. Let us see what God has in store.

May Christ be your light!

Marian Consecration, 33 Days of Growing in Holiness: November 5 - December 8

The quickest, surest, and easiest way to holiness, is through a relationship with Our Blessed Mother, Mary. Join us this week, starting November 5 and ending in six weeks on December 8 (Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception), as we prepare ourselves for Marian Consecration. Using Fr. Michael Gaitley's book 33 Days to Morning Glory, we'll individually read about and reflect on four great Marian giants: St. Louis de Montfort, St. Maximillian Kolbe, St. Teresa of Cal- cutta, and St. Pope John Paul II. They will teach us the secrets of drawing closer to the heart of Mary.

Ad Jesum Per Mariam
To Jesus Through Mary

This Is National Vocation Awareness Week: Using GPS

Teach Your Children To Use GPS

After Mass today, have a conversation with your children, asking, "What do you want to be when you grow up?" After a few moments of discussion, ask, "Who do you think God wants you to be when you grow up?" Emphasize to your children that God has a specific plan in mind for them, and that following God's plan is the surest way to happiness. Every life decision—which college to attend, whom to date, which job to pursue, whether to enter seminary, whom to marry—should be undertaken only after praying for God's guidance. In other words, encourage kids to navigate life using GPS—God's Positioning System.

A Family Prayer for Vocations

Father, increase our family's love for one another. May we honor each other in times of hardship, bearing with one another in love, just as You love us. ♦ In a special way, help us strive for holiness in our current states of life. Should You call some of us to the priesthood or religious life, help us to respond with courage and joy. ♦ Together we make heaven our goal, and pledge, with Your grace, to help each other on life's journey to You. ♦ Through the intercession of the Holy Family: Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. Amen.
