Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Starting in the month of November, I will be offering Confessions 30 minutes before each Sunday Mass. So at 730am before the 8am Mass and at 930am before the 10am Mass and the like. We will see how it goes. However, since I also have to prepare for Mass, please keep in mind that I will only have about 15 minutes for Confessions. So please do not come at the last minute as I will not have time to hear your Confession.

November is also dedicated to all of our faithful departed. Monday Nov. 2nd is the Commemoration of All Souls. The Mass will be at 7am. However we will continue to pray for all souls throughout the month. If you would like your loved ones remembered at Mass during this month, consider filling out an All Souls envelope and dropping it in the offertory box. It is also a good time to visit the graves of loved ones or if there is no one buried nearby, visit our local cemeteries and say a prayer for our faithful departed.

Recent comments based on a documentary on Pope Francis have caused some confusion and perhaps some scandal. Keep in mind that our Holy Father's comments in this context were not magisterial but rather his opinion on the matter. The Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith in

"Considerations" spoke clearly about same-sex civil unions in 2003 noting:

"Every humanly-created law is legitimate insofar as it is consistent with the natural moral law, recognized by right reason, and insofar as it respects the inalienable rights of every person. Laws in favor of homosexual unions are contrary to right reason because they confer legal guarantees, analogous to those granted to marriage, to unions between persons of the same sex. Given the values at stake in this question, the State could not grant legal standing to such unions without failing in its duty to promote and defend marriage as an institution essential to the common good.

"It might be asked how a law can be contrary to the common good if it does not impose any particular kind of behavior, but simply gives legal recognition to a de facto reality which does not seem to cause injustice to anyone. In this area, one needs first to reflect on the difference between homosexual behavior as a private phenomenon and the same behavior as a relationship in society, foreseen and approved by the law, to the point where it becomes one of the institutions in the legal structure. This second phenomenon is not only more serious, but also assumes a more wide-reaching and profound influence, and would result in changes to the entire organization of society, contrary to the common good. Civil laws are structuring principles of man's life in society, for good or for ill. They "play a very important and sometimes decisive role in influencing patterns of thought and behavior". Lifestyles and the underlying presuppositions these express not only externally shape the life of society, but also tend to modify the younger generation's perception and evaluation of forms of behavior. Legal recognition of homosexual unions would obscure certain basic moral values and cause a devaluation of the institution of marriage."

Let us continue to pray for the Church, our Holy Father, and a greater promotion and defense of the dignity of marriage.

May God bless you this week!

Spiritual Adoption

During the months of October and November, you are asked to reflect on and discern one person in your life who God wants you to invite into the Church or back to the Church. This may be a friend, family member, or co-worker.

On the first Sunday of Advent, at the beginning of our Liturgical Year, we will ask each of you who have committed to this to write the first name of this person on a card that will be collected and placed near the altar. Then, together as a parish we will begin a spiritual pilgrimage for them.
