26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

At that time, John said to Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us." Jesus replied, "Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me." - Mk 9:38-39

Dear Friends in Christ,

This is our last week discussing stewardship. I hope you'll have a chance to fill out a commitment card and make your pledge to a life of active discipleship in the next year. Given that I have been told our commitment card looks a lot more like a commitment pamphlet, or paper but that does not roll off the tongue in the same way. Stewardship must be our spirit or we will not continue to grow as a parish and as Catholic Christians.

I am so thankful that Foundations of Faith has started off so well. It is good to see how the Holy Spirit has been leading, and at least in a small way, we have been open to following. Some of our parishioners have been sharing these last weeks about how they live their stewardship but also simply put, how Jesus has touched their lives and led them into real and authentic intimacy with Him. I am not sure about you but it has left me impressed. I am always so surprised by what the Lord is doing and my spirit rejoices to see how so many are open to His movement in their lives.

This week we also celebrate the Feast of San Lorenzo Ruiz. Not many seem to know much of him so here is a short summary from Franciscan Media:

"Lorenzo was born in Manila of a Chinese father and a Filipino mother, both Christians. Thus he learned Chinese and Tagalog from them, and Spanish from the Dominicans whom he served as altar boy and sacristan. He became a professional calligrapher, transcribing documents in beautiful penmanship. He was a full member of the Confraternity of the Holy Rosary under Dominican auspices. He married and had two sons and a daughter.

"Lorenzo's life took an abrupt turn when he was accused of murder. Nothing further is known except the statement of two Dominicans that "he was sought by the authorities on account of a homicide to which he was present or which was attributed to him."

"At that time, three Dominican priests, Antonio Gonzalez, Guillermo Courtet, and Miguel de Aozaraza, were about to sail to Japan in spite of a violent persecution there. With them was a Japanese priest, Vicente Shiwozuka de la Cruz, and a layman named Lazaro, a leper. Lorenzo, having taken asylum with them, was allowed to accompany them. But only when they were at sea did he learn that they were going to Japan.

"They landed at Okinawa. Lorenzo could have gone on to Formosa, but, he reported, "I decided to stay with the Fathers, because the Spaniards would hang me there." In Japan they were soon found out, arrested, and taken to Nagasaki. The site of wholesale bloodshed when the atomic bomb was dropped had known tragedy before. The 50,000 Catholics who once lived there were dispersed or killed by persecution.

"They were subjected to an unspeakable kind of torture: After huge quantities of water were forced down their throats, they were made to lie down. Long boards were placed on their stomachs and guards then stepped on the ends of the boards, forcing the water to spurt violently from mouth, nose and ears."

He eventually died from the prolonged forms of torture. At trial when asked to apostatize he said, "That I will never do, because I am a Christian, and I shall die for God, and for him I will give many thousands of lives if I had them. And so, do with me as you please." Mass on Tuesday at 6 PM will be in his honor and we will have a reception hosted by our Filipino community following the Mass. Come join us!

Saint Lorenzo Ruiz, pray for us!

"My husband and I signed up for Foundations of Faith (Discovering Christ), but we were a little hesitant. We really didn't know what to expect. But it has changed both of us. We both feel so much closer to God. I had been searching for quite a while, and finally found peace with God and the Church. I find that I share a lot of what I learned with others and am looking forward to the next chapter! We have been attending church every week since this began and will continue for the rest of our lives!" ~ J.D.

Spotlight on Catechists

Hello my name is Tara Maggi. I was born and raised in Jackson. My husband (Mike Maggi) and I have two children, Mia (10) and Milos (7). Both Mike and I were baptized, attended catechism, and were married at St. Patrick's. Learning the faith within such a small tight nit community made all those around me feel like MY family. I was lucky enough to be asked to help with my daughter's 2nd grade Faith Formation class four years ago, and have since helped with my son's classes. When helping with Faith Formation I remember back to my childhood and try to make classes a fun, happy environment where the children can enjoy learning about Jesus alongside their friends. Having our children learn the faith within the same tight nit community has been a true blessing. For me helping with Faith Formation has been a way to give back for the many blessings I have been given.

Stewardship Opportunities

With Stewardship underway, there are always many opportunities for those who are interested in sharing their time and talent to do God's work. Some areas where there is a real need include:

Childcare Assistant (for special events)
Ushers at all Masses

Please call the Parish Office at 223-2970 if you would like to participate in one of these ministries.

Praying the Rosary Together

Growing up in the 40s and 50s in Berkeley, CA, I remember my family sitting around the kitchen table listening to radio station KRE and praying the Rosary.

Amador County Council 1849, Knights of Columbus, would like to recreate those memories. Starting October 5, and continuing the first Tuesday of each month, we will be broadcasting a recitation of the Rosary on KVGK 1340 am and 96.5 fm. The program will start shortly after 6:30 PM, following the 6:00 Mass.

Members of the Council will be broadcasting the first time. The SKD youth group will be hosting the Rosary in November. We invite other parish organizations to host a recitation as well.

Please email us at rosary@kofc-1849.org. Include your organization's name, contact person, phone number, email address, preferred month as well as a back up month. We would like to have a different group each month for the entire year.
